

Brainstorming – A Time I Learned Something About Friendship

Directions: In each box, write or draw a time you learned something about friendship. It could be:

- A time a friend made you feel really good or really bad
- A time you decided not to be friends with someone anymore
- A time a friend did something very special for you
- A time you did something very special for a friend